

MRS. DOANE IS TO BE EASY NO MORE

To Investigate All Cases—Makes Plea for Underclothing for Poor Children.

HELPS MAN TO INSIDE POSITION

"Now do you blame me for being careful about who I give clothing and help to?" asked Mrs. George Doane, secretary of the Associated Charities...

"Do you blame me for waiting to investigate cases?"

"Yes, they even told the other bums how easy I was, and now, believe me, they must convince me that they want to work before they get anything around here."

Needs Children's Clothes.

"Right now I need more than anything else, underclothing for children. I am short, very short, on underclothing for children ranging in age between 1 and 8 years."

But even in distributing underclothing to the children who have not had underclothing to wear at any time during the year...

Three Hundred Families Helped.

This month will be a record-breaker in the number of families helped by the Associated Charities. Already 300 families have been helped...

Unemployment, of course, is still the big problem. "I hope when the welfare board gets busy it will take up the unemployment problem and do something," said Mrs. Doane...

Finds Inside Job.

The father of eight small children has been put to work at an inside job at $4 a month, after the Associated Charities has carried the family practically for two years...

Omaha is Expected to Give $20,000 to Jewish Relief Fund

Committee working to collect the Omaha contribution for the relief of the Jews in the European war zones are meeting with good success.

At noon Friday Treasurer Morris Levy had received individual checks to the amount of $1,131. This is aside from the sums secured by the various committees calling upon banks, wholesale and retail houses...

The work will go on at least through Saturday. The Jewish people of Omaha have raised $8,000 among themselves. This work has been going on for several weeks, being taken up principally by the various churches and Jewish societies.

All Theaters Must Be Fumigated Each Night Says Connell

Health Commissioner Connell has addressed the following instructions to managers of motion picture and regular theaters:

You are hereby ordered to fumigate your theater every night after the last performance with formaldehyde candles, each candle according to size, to correspond to the number of cubic feet they are capable of fumigating.

For the severe itching cough that comes with grippe, Foley's Honey and Tar Compound is wonderfully healing and soothing. It eases the tightness over the chest, relieves the phlegm easily and helps the racking, tearing cough that is so exhausting and weakening.

New Emperor of China Declines to Stand on Ceremony

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.) PEKING, Jan. 28.—Much confusion has arisen since Yuan Shi Kai's acceptance of the emperorship because of the universal desire of Chinese officials to "save their face" and not do anything which will violate traditions and make them ridiculous according to ancient practices and Confucian customs.

Many resignations have been submitted by officials who adhere strictly to the ancient belief that the T'ing and the T'ing along are ordained of heaven and cannot be replaced by Yuan Shi Kai without doing violence to all that is sacred in the teachings of Confucius.

believe that a man who has once been of superior rank to another can never permit the conditions to be reversed.

A desire to prevent his former superior from resigning from the government has inspired Yuan Shi Kai to issue the following mandate, designed to spare the dignity of influential officials he does not care to leave the government service and become his opponents:

"In consideration of my mean virtues, it ought to be impossible for me to become emperor of the people. However, on account of the many difficulties of the time which I have met with, I cannot shift the burdens from my shoulders. But at every moment I feel that my position is like to a person going to the verge of a deep precipice or treading upon thin ice.

feel uneasy. Most of the responsible civil and military positions of the country are being held by my former colleagues, and when I recall that fact it makes me feel more difficult. It may be said that in ancient times Sze-yueh and Wu-jen made no distinction in this respect, between the old and their new dynasties. But how dare I to rank myself with sage emperors and kings? Therefore, all my former companions and respectful old acquaintances must not style themselves 'sheng'. As the present situation is most critical, they should devote all their attention for the salvation of the nation and not observe mere formalities and unimportant details."

Still Counting. Cleveland Plain Dealer: The man who but there were more dogs than babies at Palm Beach is still counting. He has found twenty dogs and eight babies so far, and is a good deal surprised over the result. He thinks the babies were rung in on him.

Dutch Socialists Plan Campaign for Peace in Europe

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.) AMSTERDAM, Netherlands, Jan. 28.—Dutch socialists conceive it to be their special task to bring together their comrades of the belligerent nations for common action against the war. In this, they have not succeeded, owing chiefly to the refusal of the French and German socialists to co-operate to this end, according to J. H. Schaper, the principal spokesman of the social-democratic party at its conference just held here.

"Except in Germany," interrupted a heckler, whereupon, Schaper angrily retorted that in Berlin two days before the war, the streets resounded with anti-war songs and cries for peace. The speaker denied that the war had shown the fallibility of socialistic principles, and affirmed that on the contrary they had fully justified themselves. The war, he contended, has proved that socialism is not an unattainable ideal, and he pointed out that the state regulation of food supplies and the establishment of maximum prices on the necessities of life, as adopted at the present time in most European countries, was the first step towards the realization of the socialistic idea of distribution.

Whether war will be possible when socialism is adopted as a basis of government was a question he said could not be answered directly. He saw severe pressure upon the workers owing to the demands of all governments for rearmaments after the war; but socialism would, at the same time, gain great influence. Those who returned from the battlefields would realize the misery wrought by militarism, and join in the struggle for democracy against secret diplomacy.

His Gratitude. There is a certain little fellow in whose heart his mother has been for some time striving to instill the sentiment of generosity, which, to her regret, did not appear to be naturally present. The son of a poor family of the neighborhood she had particularly commended to her boy's consideration. The other day he came in with a bearing face. "You know Tom, that poor boy?" he said eagerly. "Well, I gave him half that box of candy you gave me."
